

Restorative Practices In Early Childhood Programs 5 Tips

1

Second Step & Creative Curriculum

Begin with a researched based curriculum for academics, social, and emotional learning that aligns with your state standards.

2

Ongoing Social-Emotional Professional Development

Ongoing social-emotional/restorative practices professional development has an influence on teachers, on their ability to reflect and on their teaching practices.

3

International Institute for Restorative Practices

Defining Restorative Practices

"includes the use of informal and formal processes that precede wrongdoing, those that proactively build relationships and a sense of community to prevent conflict and wrongdoing" (Wachtel, 2016).

4

Family Engagement

Promote family engagement and be intentional about creating your school's family engagement framework.

5

Data

Data creates a stop light effect. It lets you know what you should continue doing, it makes you wonder if you should proceed with caution, and what you should stop doing.